

Obituary

Ross L. Dabney, known to many as "Uncle Ross" was born in Stockbridge, Georgia on August 13, 1913 to the late Robert and Osceola Askew Dabney. He departed this life on December 31, 2001 at Grady Memorial Hospital, after a long illness.

He joined Red Oak United Methodist Church at a very early age. He later moved to Atlanta where he worked for Sears and Roebuck & Co. for many years. He later worked for Lockheed Martin in Marietta, GA., where he retired.

He was first married to Bertha Wells, they were blessed with two sons, Johnny B. and Robert Lee, all preceded him in death. There were five brothers, and one sister who also preceded him in death.

On July 1, 1970, he was married to Jo Ann Swain and to this union there were no children.

He leaves to mourn his memory a loving and devoted wife, Jo Ann Dabney; two sisters, Elizabeth Mikell, Cornelia Allen; four brothers-in-law, Rev. John T. Allen, John W. Mikell, Leonard Hambrick, Calvin Swain, Jr.; two daughters-in-law, three grandsons, great-grandchildren, three sisters-in-law, a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who loved him dearly.
